

Title: Islamabad reduced carbon emissions

Generated on: 2026-04-14 14:50:45

Copyright (C) 2026 ELALMACEN SOLAR. All rights reserved.

-----

These initiatives collectively aim to promote a greener, more sustainable transportation system while minimizing the city's carbon footprint. Speaking to a private news channel, the ...

Developed in partnership with the ICT Administration, the Islamabad Transport Authority, and the city's Traffic Police, the plan targets one of Islamabad's most persistent challenges: pollution ...

Chairman CDA said that the completion of development projects in the Federal Capital Islamabad will also lead to a reduction in carbon emissions as well as citizens' convenience.

According to Islamabad Wildlife Management Board Member, Vaqar Zakariya, the city has started to heat up due to no let-up in carbon emissions from vehicles and tree cutting, both of ...

The study highlighted the lack of NbS policy in Islamabad, urging the need for prioritized zoning, integration of social, economic, and ecological indicators, and the adoption of green ...

Islamic Relief, in collaboration with the Capital Development Authority, has launched a 100,000-tree urban forest in Islamabad to reduce carbon emissions. Pakistan updated its climate ...

In a major step toward controlling smog and improving air quality, Islamabad authorities have decided to make carbon emission testing for all vehicles mandatory through certified laboratories.

CDA introduces projects under a carbon credit program to make Islamabad a greener, eco-friendly city, including electric buses, waste management, and reforestation.

Website: <https://elalmacendelaireacondicado.es>

